

European Patients' Forum & Medicines for Europe Seminar

WHEN: Wednesday 26 April 2017

TIME: 12:30 -17 :00

VENUE: Renaissance Hotel, 19 Rue du Parnasse, 1000 Brussels

Building on increased collaboration and ongoing initiatives over the last several years, the European Patients Forum and Medicines for Europe are delighted to invite you to the second structured dialogue between members.

The objective of this meeting is to gather the views of patients and of the generic, biosimilar and value added medicines sectors on how to optimise efforts for better access to high quality medicines.

Agenda

12:30 -13:30	Welcome lunch
13:30 -14:00	Joint Welcome & Policy Update on EPF-Medicines for Europe cooperation <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Nicola Bedlington, EPF Secretary General• Adrian van den Hoven, Medicines for Europe Director General
14:00-14:30	EPF Campaign on Access and How Medicines for Europe can support/contribute
14.30 - 15.15	Biosimilar medicines – How to deliver on patient information needs? Open discussion
15:15-15:30	Coffee break

15.30 - 16.15

Improving patients experience through off patent research

16.15 – 16.45

Rolling out the cooperation at national level

Exploratory discussion on replicating the dialogue at national level

16.45 – 17.00

Wrap-Up and next steps

- Nicola Bedlington
- Adrian van den Hoven